

International Graduate Program of Education and Human Development

2019 Whole English Project-based Service Learning Program In the Philippines

Dual Degree

In cooperation with St. Paul University, Quezon City, the "2019 Whole English Project-based Service Learning Program" was held from June 30, 2019, to July 7, 2019. Leading high school students from Taiwan to the St. Paul University, Quezon City, attending classes with Philippine high school students and conducting group cooperation activities to promote exchanges between Taiwan and the Philippines.

IGPEHD is working on Dual Degree with Northern Illinois University, Universität Hamburg and Purdue University.

TEEP@AsiaPlus

Brown –bag Lunch Meeting (Taiwan Experience Education Programs)

The Brown-bag Lunch Meeting is to provide a platform for international students to enjoy lunch with professors and exchange research directions. We will also hold academic results reports irregularly.

TEEP Project invites international undergraduate or graduate students to come to Taiwan staying for 1~2 months. Experience Taiwanese style of life and walk into Taiwan elementary school teach.

TEEP provides:

1. A great chance to practice EFL teaching
2. An unique experience of Taiwanese style of life and passion.

International Graduate Program of Education and Human Development

2019 IGPEHD Student Orientation

IGPEHD holds Student Orientation for the international student to know more about the regulations of IGPEHD. The students also have the opportunity to meet the professors and exchange the research directions.

2019 IOE Student Orientation

IGPEHD Students participate in the Student Orientation of Institute of Education. Through this, international students got a chance to meet Taiwanese Ph.D. students and make a great connection to each other.

